Forecast for Monday 26 Aug 2024

Weather: Low cloud and outbreaks of light rain and drizzle through the early hours. Drizzly showers continuing into the first part of the morning, but this slowly clearing as cloud starts to break up, allowing some sunny spells in a mainly dry afternoon. Windy, but less so than Sunday.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 30% at first, becoming 80% around lunchtime, decreasing again to 60% during the evening.

Low Cloud and visibility: Areas of cloud at first, base 500-600m, slowly lifting and breaking later in the morning to clear around lunchtime or early afternoon, although some patches lingering on the higher summits. Some patchy cloud re-forming during the evening, base 500-600m. Visibility often poor or very poor at first in drizzle or low cloud, gradually improving to be mostly good away from cloud in the afternoon.

Meteorologist's View

Winds easing somewhat through the early hours, before building again to reach near gale force on higher slopes during the late afternoon and evening, giving difficult walking conditions. Feeling cold in the wind, despite moderate or perhaps high UV levels in afternoon sunny spells.

Forecast for Tuesday 27 Aug 2024

Weather: Cloud thickening through the early hours, with rain arriving from the northwest during the late morning and afternoon. Some uncertainty as to the timing of the ingress of the rain. Windy, with gales likely, especially in the northwest of the Park.

Maximum wind: Southerly 40-50 mph, gusting 55-60 mph.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 60% becoming 30%.

Low Cloud and visibility: Areas of cloud, base 500-600m, overnight then lifting a little through the morning. Cloud then becoming more widespread from late morning, base 400-600m, but more especially in the northwest of the Park. Cloud will likely be less widespread with slightly higher bases in the southeast. Visibility good away from cloud and rain, but moderate to very poor in rain and low cloud.

Temperature: Valleys: Plus 10C, becoming plus 17C.
At 800m: Plus 11C.
Freezing level: Above the summits.
